

PEOPLE TRAFFIC COUNTER

A people counter is an electronic device that is used to measure the number of people traversing a certain DFMD passage or entrance. Bi-Directional people counting is where people are counted going both in and out of a DFMD, and the counters know in which direction they were moving.

Features:

- Bi-directional
- It's micro controller-based programming
- People Detection by Infrared sensor TSOP 1738.
- It has 4 features IN, OUT, NET AND TOTAL
- 20 x 4 characters seven segments green LCD Display.
- It requires 5V DC Input Power.
- IN/OUT- 0-999999
- NET-0-99999
- TOTAL-0-999999
- It has a combat/Robotic design.